APPENDIX XII

7. LUTHERAN AUTHORS AND WORKS

The classification of authors as ‘Lutheran’, ‘Reformed’, ‘Calvinist’, ‘Radical’ and so on, is a notoriously inexact exercise during this period. In consequence, some authors have been placed in more than one category, reflecting differences or developments in thinking on particular beliefs. Suggestions for improvements and corrections would be welcomed by the author.

For comparison, the occurrence of the works (though not necessarily the same edition) listed in the collections of Matthew Parker (including donations to the University Library), Andrew Perne and contemporary Cambridge inventories up to 1589 (BiCI – with the number of inventories containing the item) and the 1583 University Library catalogue [CUL], both edited by E. Leedham-Green, is shown in the columns below, with the date range of Geste’s copies in the final column.

Abbreviations

- * following the catalogue entry, Geste’s MS annotations in the text.
- $ other work(s) by this author held by the owner, but not the item which Geste owned.
- # CUL copy – Parker donation.
- ? Some doubt about Geste’s authorship of the annotations.
- ‡ Copy (edition unknown) also listed in Garrett Godfrey’s Accounts 1527–33 (GGA 1527–33), edited by E. Leedham-Green.

8. BUCER, STRASBOURG REFORM &c.

The classification of authors as ‘Lutheran’, ‘Reformed’, ‘Calvinist’, ‘Radical’ and so on, is a notoriously inexact exercise during this period. In consequence, some authors have been placed in more than one category, reflecting differences or developments in thinking on particular beliefs. Suggestions for improvements and corrections would be welcomed by the author.

For comparison, the occurrence of the works listed in the collections of Matthew Parker (including donations to the University Library), Andrew Perne and contemporary Cambridge inventories up to 1589 (BiCI – with the number of inventories containing the item) and the 1583 University Library catalogue [CUL], both edited by E. Leedham-Green, is shown in the columns below, with the date range of Geste’s copies in the final column.
